BLUE EYES

The Methodist church of this place has taken on new life under the leadership of Rev. Sheridan C. Chapman. Who, through the few months he has been with us, proved himself a real Christian gentleman and indefatigable.

With the assistance of Rev. E. N. Early a revival was held in April and a number were converted in the old fashioned Methodist way. And these were some of the best people of the community.

A Sunday school has been organized, W. R. Waller as Supt., and Boyd Bingham Asst., with a splendid corps of teachers.

We now have a weekly prayer and class meeting—all are in good condition.

Rev. M. M. Jones our Sunday School Missionary was with us from Friday to Monday inclusive and held a quarterly meeting with lectures on Sunday Schools, he was very interesting and edifying to the people and we are glad that he came. We pray the Lord may greatly bless him in his work and hope it may not be long until he can make us another visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Winston Sneed spent Sunday with Robt. Wheeler and Mother at Wheeler.

John T. and Miss Mary Westfield have returned home from Williamsburg where they have been in school for the past year.

Lawrence G. Kuhn, crack third baseman for the Warren baseball team has been laid up with a "Charley Horse" since the game with Artemus last Saturday week ago and all probability will be out of the game the balance of the season which will be an awful blow to the Warren team.

McDONALD A VISITOR

Mr. W. H. McDonald, of Barboursville, was a pleasant visitor in our Camp last week in the interest of his coming race for Circuit Court Clerk and the chances are that he will poll a big vote in the Primary in August. Mr. McDonald certainly deserves the nomination and is the man for the job as he has shown by his past record and the voters will do well by dropping one in for W. H. on Saturday August the 7th.

STILL UNDEFEATED

The Warren baseball team has yet to meet its match, though last Sunday in a called six inning game, Bennettsville had the lead of one run but due to rain the game was called at the end of the sixth by agreement, to be played over and Warren is due to walk away with it the next time.

The Warren team has several players who have been in faster company. Bill and Jim Dixon our star battery played three seasons in the Illinois state league. Will McCracken the best first baseman that ever played in this part of country was a star performer in the Coalfield League at the time Raney and Kuhn broke into the profession and with these old heads on the team it is a hard one to beat.

The game with Artemus which was to have been played last week has been postponed for this coming Saturday and the boys will have to lay it over on them as Artemus has won a game at last and will be thinking that they might accidentally win one from Warren after taking on Barboursville. Its to be hoped that they will at least make it interesting, even tho' they don't win.

TROSPER

We are having lots of rain here at present.

Sam Meeks was visiting friends in Trospers Sunday.

Hardin Lewallen has returned home from Barboursville where he has been a student of U. C.

Miss Maude Ayers of Wheeler has been the guest of Miss Bertha Sharp for a few days.

Master Earl McDonald has returned from Pineville where he has been attending school.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

A TRIBUTE TO JOHN COOPER

BY E. A. KNUCKLES

Thou art gone! Toll and strife and pain
Upon the troubled sea of life is past,
Thou hast journeyed far beyond the Jasper sea,
Where thou canst elude thy just reward at last.
And tho' we gladly lay this burden down,
And follow thee to that celestial strand,
Where toil and struggles pain the heart no more,
And spirits chant sweet praises hand in hand.

Green is the turf above thee,
Thy form of clay still lingers 'neath the sod,
Thy soul has flown upon the summer's breeze,
And lingers in that Haven nearest God.
Sweet friend! Noble friend!
May we not ask a favor at thy hand?
When we lay down this mouldering lump of clay,
Will thou not guide our spirits to that Land?

The human mass that loved thee, bowed to mourn,
All Nature paused to listen and to sigh,
And to drop a tear upon thy lifeless form.
When Death's keen lance shot athwart from the sky,
Once have the seasons come and gone,
And now again has Nature spread her silvery shawl
Upon the meadows, where oft thy feet have trod,
Sweet Nature spreads her mat of purest green.

The toils of life are upon us, and soon
From out the mystic silence of the Future we must hear,
A whisper—a summons,—carried on the breeze,
Across the dread, cold silence of the years,
And when our time is come, and we must
Thro' Death's lone, dark shadows glide,
We beg thy spirit attend us on our way,
And bear our souls to loved one O'er the Tide.

DEATHS

BURTON

Little Willie Burton age 14 years, son of Dr. Burton, died in Pineville last Wednesday, and was brought here and buried by his mother in the burying place of his grand father Frank Parrott on Parrott's Branch. This young man, we are told died of ptomine poison. We join the family and friends in their sad bereavement.

NOE

Mrs. Ellen Decker Noe, wife of James Noe, was born in Somerset Ky., October 29th, 1863, died June 1 1915. Mrs. Noe has suffered for many years with a complication of diseases, she was a member of the M. E. Church and has lived a consistent christian life for many years.

She leaves a husband, three daughters, one son, two sisters and one brother and a host of friends to mourn their loss but to her it is eternal happiness. As she has suffered many years, this world had but few pleasures to her, she left the assurance that she was ready to cross death's dark valley to meet those who have gone on before.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Ligon and Rev. W. F. Gregory at the home of James Noe. The remains were interred in city cemetery.

GIBSON

Death came into the home of W. T. Gibson on June 1 and took him to his final home on high.

Mr. Gibson was born in Knox county on Sept. 13 1848. He was a man of fine qualities, and was a member of the M. E. church, having joined same when he was only 17 years old. He was once a teacher of common schools of Knox county; in 1881 he was married to Miss Mollie Grinstead, daughter of John P. Grinstead.

Mr. Gibson was one of the few men who never tasted liquor or used tobacco in any form. In his early life he was a leader in Sunday school work and was always on hand on church days, and was a man that never had a difference with a neighbor.

He leaves a loving and confiding wife, three daughters and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Catron the last of the family, and a host of friends to mourn with each other, but why should we mourn for one who lived the life W. T. Gibson lived, he is not dead, he is only asleep in Jesus but will one day awake to a life eternal, there will be no parting of friends in heaven, no sorrow, no pain, and no tears, but all joy, peace and happiness. Let us live as he did so that when the summons shall come for us we may have the approval of Him who died upon Calvary.

"Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

AGEE

On yesterday Roy Agee, a miner who resides on Smokey Creek, was instantly killed by the falling slate in the mine owned by Mrs. Coyt. Roy, as he was usually known, was about thirty-five years old, was a harmless, easy-going kind of a fellow. He leaves a wife, son, and daughter to mourn their.

MARTIN

We have just learned that another of Knox County's most honored citizens has answered the death summons, and we hasten to extend our sympathy to the bereaved family, that is left to mourn.

We have known Mr. Allen Martin for many years, and to know him was to love him, he was a man that had no enemies, and one that was honest, sober, and an all round christian gentleman. We regret to to give him up but when the good Master calls for one of his own there is nothing left to do but answer the call.

BURCH

On last Thursday one of the most impressive funerals was held that the writer has ever witnessed. It being that of Rev. W. H. Burch. He was taken to his old home at Little Brush Creek and the funeral was conducted in the old church of which he was pastor for many years. The services were conducted as follows:

Scripture lesson read by Rev. J. T. Stamper.
Prayer by W. R. Marsee.
Reading of the Obituary and short address by J. T. Stamper.
Rev. L. W. Hampton delivered a short address and was followed by Rev. Frank Bray.
The services being concluded by G. R. Ogan, and the benediction by Rev. John W. Baker.

All of these ministers were old time and life long friends and colleagues of Rev. Burch.
Rev. Burch was born in Claiborne County Tennessee, on Nov. 7th 1848, he was married twice his first wife was a Miss Rains, and of that marriage there were born six sons and three daughters. He was later married to Mrs. Julia Croley, daughter of Rev. Frank Davis, she is an ideal lady and like a mother to Rev. Burch's children.

Mr. Burch was a soldier in the late Civil war, and was a member of John G. Eve Post No. 253, G. A. R. was at one time a Justice of the Peace for Knox Co. was a minister of the Baptist church, for thirty four years.

He leaves a widow, four sons and three daughters to mourn their loss, but there loss is his eternal gain and he today like those of his kind, is in the land that is fairer than day, where he met loved ones that have gone on before.
